

JANUARY ELL NEWSLETTER

Important January Dates:

Half Day Institute: Friday, January 18

No School: Martin Luther King Day Monday, January 21

The ELL Access Test (English Language Proficiency Test) begins the week of January 14th. There is a Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing component to the Access Test. The test measures the student's level of academic English in all areas of literacy. Please make sure your child eats a good breakfast before school. If you have questions about testing you can email me at vtrevizo@naperville203.org or phone the school and leave a message with the office and I'll make sure to return your call.

Favorite books we are reading in ELL class for the month of January

The Hello, Goodbye Window by Norton Juster and Chris Raschka

To Market To Market by Anne Miranda and Janet Stevens

Harry the Dirty Dog by Gene Zion and Margaret Bloy Graham

Even More Parts by Tedd Arnold

Fancy Nancy by Jane O'Conner and Robin Preiss Glasses

January monthly words: (skis, Martin Luther King Jr. boots, New Year, sled, snowman, mittens, and snowflake).

January is a cold and snowy month; students should come to school with a warm coat, hat, mittens, and boots. The children go outside for recess.

Please read to your child 20 minutes each day. Read in English or in the child's native language.
